

NONUM CAPUT: PARVA PROBATIO

Nōmen _____

I. Declinā hic frāter ūnus in singularī.

Nom.	hic	frāter	ūnus
Gen.	_____	frātris	_____
Dat.	_____	_____	_____
Acc.	_____	_____	_____
Abl.	_____	_____	_____

II. Respondē dē fābulā Nīsī et Euryalī.

a. Trānsfer in Anglicum: Nīsus hunc amīcum in periculō videt.

b. What did Nisus and Euryalus do in the camp of the Rutulians?

c. What did Euryalus take from one of the Rutulians? _____

III. Quaestiōnēs Grammaticae

a. Circle the five adjectives that have irregular genitive and dative singular endings:

alius bonus liber neuter noster nullus solus tuus totus

b. What are those irregular endings? genitive: _____ dative: _____

PRAEMIUM ADDITUM:

An “alibi” is literally _____.

An “alias” is _____ name.

Who wrote the poem from which the story of Nisus and Euryalus is taken? _____

What was the title of the poem? _____

☺ Carpe diem!