

LATINA MII-Sexta Probātiō (Capita XXXV-XXXVII)

Doctor Ricardus Illa Flōra

MACRONS: -1 1st error, -1/5 additional errors

Vēr MMVI

Nōmen: ANSWER KEY

I. Dēscribere et trānsfer sententiam quam magister prōnūntiat.

x%

1/word

LATINA: Hortor vōs ut Latīnae studeātis!

ANGLICA: I urge you (all) to study (direct your zeal/enthusiasm toward) Latin!

II. Trānsfer hanc fābulam in Anglicam.

lv%

½ per word

Menedēmus Athēnīs vīvēbat, ubi habuit ūnum filium, Clīniam, quī puellam pauperem tam magnōpere amāvit et huic tam multa dōna semper ferēbat ut pater esset eī irātissimus. Clīnia puellam dīvitiīs et honōribus etiam anteposuit, cōsiliō bonō nōn ūtēbātur, et patrī numquam pārui; Menedēmus arbitrātus est filium esse stultum et voluit eum fierī sapientiōrem; Clīniae persuāsit, igitur, ut domō Ephesum (Ephesus, -ī, m., “Ephesus,” a city in Asia Minor) cum exercitū abīret. Clīnia, autem, Ephesī nōn diū remānsit sed Athēnās paucīs mēnsibus (mēnsis, mēnsis, m., “month”) rediit et plūrimōs diēs cum amīcā vīvēbat in casā proximā (“next door to”) domō patris. Pater id nescīvit ac trīstissimus erat, cum putāret filium fortasse perīsse, et rūre cōtīdiē labōrābat ut ipse prō morte filīi poenās daret.

Menedemus was living/used to live (lived) at/in Athens, where (half off for “when”) he had one son, Clinia, who loved a poor girl so greatly and was always bringing/brought/used to bring so many gifts to this girl/one (half off for “her”) that (his) father was very/most angry to(ward)/at/with him. Clinia even put the girl before (preferred the girl to) riches/wealth and honors, (he) did not use/was not using good judgment (a good plan), and never obeyed (was obedient to) his father; Menedemus thought (that) (his) son was foolish/stupid/a nitwit (ha!!) and wanted him to become (be made; half off for just “be”) wiser; therefore, he persuaded Clinia to leave/go away from home to Ephesus with the army. Clinia, however, did not remain at/in Ephesus long/(for) a long time but (he) returned to Athens in/within a few months and was living (for) very many days in the house next (door) to his father’s home/house. (His) father did not know (was ignorant of) this and was very/most sad, since he thought that his son HAD perhaps died/perished, and he was laboring/working in the country daily/every day (so/in order) that he himself might pay the penalty (in order to pay the penalty himself) for his son’s death.

III. Quaestīōnēs grammaticae dē fābulā: ANSWER ANY 15 OF THE 18.

xv%

1 (@ (½ + ½ for case + use)

case/use of Athēnīs (line 1): locative/place where clause type for esset (2): result case/use of eī (2): dative/adjectives case/use of honōribus (3): dative/compound verb case/use of cōsiliō (3): ablative/special deponent case/use of patrī (3): dative/special verb clause type for esse (4): indirect statement case/use of Clīniae (4): dative/special verb

Continued on reverse ↩

case/use of domō (5): ablative/place from which clause type for abīret (6): jussive noun case/use of Ephesī (6): locative/place where case/use of Athēnās (6): acc./place to which case/use of mēnsibus (6): ablative/time within case/use of diēs (7): acc./duration of time case/use of domō (8): dative/adjectives clause type for putāret (8): cum causal (½ circum.)
 case/use of rūre (8): locative/place where clause type for daret (9): purpose

IV. Scībe synopsis in TERTIA PERSONA SINGULARI xx%

I@ PRAESĒNS FUTŪRUM IMPERF. PERFECT. FUT.PERF. PLUPERF.
eō, īre, ū:

Modus indicātīvus

it ībit ībat iit ierit ierat

Modus subiūctīvus

eat īret ierit īsset

fīō, fierī, factus sum:

Modus indicātīvus

fit fiet fiēbat factus est factus erit factus erat

Modus subiūctīvus

fīat fieret factus sit factus esset

PRAEMIUM ADDITUM (i @)

Why was Gemellus happy about Maronilla’s bad cough? she was dieing; he’d marry her and inherit her money

In his “I hate and I love” poem, to what specific torture did Catullus compare the anguish he felt?

crucifixion

Where was the bore that kept pestering Horace on his walk SUPPOSED to be? in court

Dēpinge vinculum: [draw a CHAIN]	Dēpinge iānuam: [draw a DOOR]
--	---

Plūrimōs annōs Latīnam amābimus!

“We shall love Latin for very many years!”